

Figure Drawing

- A Classical Approach -

August 30th – November 15th, Thursdays 9am – NOON

Brenda Hash, PSA

Fine Art and Portraiture

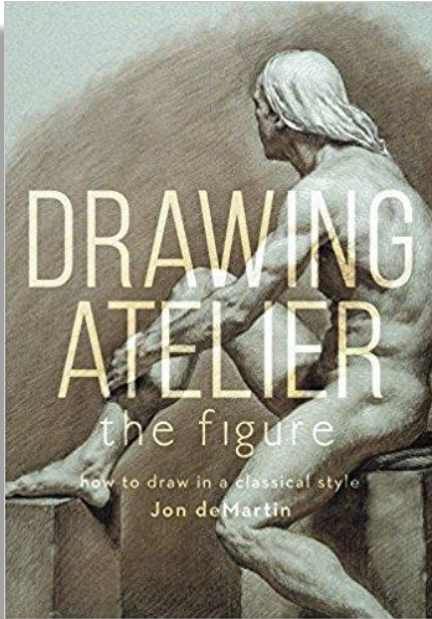

www.brendahash.com

281-431-5877

Class Location:

Fort Bend Art Center

2012 Avenue G,
Rosenberg, TX 77471

Textbook to be used with this class.

Learn to draw the figure following the classical approach outlined in Jon deMartin's excellent book on the subject, "Drawing Atelier, the figure".

Class time will include review of key concepts from the book such as shading techniques, modeling the form, principles of foreshortening, and linear proportions. We will draw in black and white charcoal pencils on toned papers. The last part of the semester students will work from their own photo references to apply what they have learned to their own personal project and may work in oil, pastel, or charcoal.

Cost: $475 (twelve, 3-hour classes).

Please Note: There are no refunds for missed classes.

To Register: Send $250 now to hold your spot, along with your contact information (phone #, email address, street address) to:

Brenda Hash -
Fine Art & Portraiture
9125 Shorelake Dr
Missouri City, TX 77459

Note: The balance of the class fee ($225) will be due on September 13th.

The Workout, trois crayon by Brenda Hash

Supply list:

- Drawing Atelier: the figure by Jon deMartin. Available from Amazon for $25.79.
- Drawing supply lists will be sent in August to those registering for the class. This will be minimal such as charcoal pencils and papers.